IN ZONE OF ADVANCE

DONALD DOW IN AMERICAN UNIT WHICH WINS COMMENDA- FROM MAJOR

Mrs. R. A. Blackburn of this city is in receipt of a letter from her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. Dow, of Elwood, Nebraska, in which she gives information of her son Donald, now in service overseas, who has made many visits to his relatives in Glendale and has a large number of friends here. Mrs. Dow writes.

"He has told me a few of the things he couldn't tell before, for instance: He landed at Brest. He was in the sick bay eight days with measles on the way over. He went to the line the first day of March and was brigaded two weeks with the Canadians, then went to a rest camp for a while and went back with an American unit for three weeks. They had a successful gas attack which brought them a letter of commendation from the Major. He said they had each done more than the average infantry man would do in two years of warfare in that they averaged ten Germans apiece. This is terrible and yet it must be.

"He has told me of many terrible experiences and narrow escapes he has had, but his good luck was always with him. He writes he will tell me of a thrilling experience with bombing machines when a little longer time has passed. He sent me some hand-made lace he bought the last time he was in a large town. He has a good friend near camp in an old French lady who brings him hot waffles now and then. To return her kindness he gives her a bag of Duke's mixture for her husband, which the government gives him and for which he has no use.

"Donald has been in the Zone of Advance all the time so he can't tell me where he is but in my guessing in one of my letters I guessed right, he says, but as I made six suggestions I am not much better off than if he hadn't told me."

WILL HAVE TO TAKE STREET CAR

Mr. and Mrs. William Harvey, Jr., of Los Feliz road, will leave for the East Thursday morning at 9 o'clock via the Santa Fe. They expect to stop for a few days in Chicago and have been advised by their friends there that because they will arrive on Sunday it will be impossible to meet them as they usually do, with an automobile, because of the recent government order forbidding the use of autos on Sunday. From Chicago the Harveys will go to Middletown, Ohio, where Mrs. Harvey's sons and daughter and their families now reside.

GOES TO WASHINGTON

Attorney Albert D. Pearce of this city, of the firm of Evans, Abbott & Pearce, reports that his partner, Mr. Abbott, has been called to Washington, D. C., to the legal department of the Shipping Board. Thus are able men from all parts of the country being gathered into the army or assembled at Washington to contribute in one way or another to the winning of the war.

BABY'S TRAGIC DEATH

INFANT SON OF MR. AND MRS. LESTER LE NAY KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Funeral services which will be held this (Tuesday) afternoon at the Undertaking Parlors of Scovern, Letton & Frey in this city, are the sequel of a very sad automobile accident which occurred in Hollywood last Thursday, in which John Lawson of 246 North Kenwood, this city, was indirectly concerned. He had driven to Hollywood for the purpose of showing to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Le Nay of 4340 Franklin avenue, Hollywood, but former residents of this city at Tenth and Glendale avenues, a house on the same street and but a few doors from the Le Nay residence. Little Helen Le Nay, three years of age, and her brother, Paul Lester Le Nay, but 21 months of age, accompanied their parents but soon left them and returned to Mr. Lawson's car which was standing in the roadway in front of their home, which is on the edeg of a hill overlooking a dumping ground for tin cans. The children climbed in and the little girl succeeded in turning the steering wheel, starting the car and sending it over the bluff. She came through the experience unhurt, but her baby brother was found to be badly injured and was rushed to the Receiving Hospital and later taken to the County Hospital, where he died Sunday. The services will take place at two o'clock.

REGISTRATION ORDERS

EXEMPTION BOARD AND LEGAL ADVISORY BOARD INSTRUCT REGISTRARS

The headquarters of the local Exemption Board in the Council Chamber of the City Hall was a busy place yesterday afteroon when chief registrars and assisting registrars from all precincts in this Seventh County District, to the number of about sixty, met with the Exemption Board and with members of the Legal Advisory Board to receive instructions and registration supplies. It was a babel of voices a good share of the time during the late hours of the afternoon and not until "the shades of night were falling fast" did the last registrar get away with his package of cards, etc., and his parting instructions from Chairman Lanterman and other members of the Board.

Attorney Hartley Shaw, member of the Glendale Board of Trustees, who helped in preparing the list of registrars, has been made Chairman of the Legal Advisory Board, and presided at the meeting. It will be his responsibility following the registration of September 12th, to see that one or more attorneys are present every day at the headquarters in the City Hall to help and advise registrants in filling out their Questionnaires.

The instructions given chief and assisting registrars in regard to their duties, were thus summarized by Attorney Mattison B. Jones, member of the local Exemption Board:

"The registrant must take oath on the truthfulness of his answers covering such matters as age, place of birth, home address, occupation, name of employer or employers, race, citizen or alien and if alien subject to what country.

"The registrar must observe and certify as to the height, build, color of hair, whether or not the registrant has lost arm, leg, hand, eye or is obviously physically disqualified.

"The hours of registration are from 7 a. m. until 9 p. m. on Thursday, September 12th.

"The registrant is not necessarily bound to register in his own precinct but may register elsewhere with a view, however, of his registration card being sent immediately to this Board.

The Chief Registrar must account to the Board for all red cards received by him and must make a report of the registration at his registration place at the earliest moment possible, but in no event later than noon on Friday, September 13th. All registration cards and unused certificates and reports must be delivered in person by the Chief Registrar to the Chairman of the local Board at the office of the Board in the City Hall of Glendale.

"As far as practicable each registrar meets across the table, one registrant at a time.

"If the chief registrar and the the other registrars for each registration district already named are insufficient to do the work, they have the right to choose another to assist them after first administering the oath of registrar to him.

"If a registrant makes answer to any question which answer the registrar knows to be untrue, the registrar must certify to that fact over his own signature.

"The Chief Registrar must also report to the local Board the name or names of registrars who do not ask for compensation and the local Board will furnish the Provost Marshal General, through the Adjutant General, a list of all registrars and chief registrars in District No. 7 who have not asked for compensation for their services.

"Under no circumstances must a registrar give a registrant either a serial number or an order number."

OLD FRIENDS ENTERTAINED

Mrs. C. E. Harlan of 943 Mariposa street was hostess at a pretty afternoon affair last Friday, at which old friends who were her schoolmates in Iowa years ago, were entertained. Fall flowers, chiefly dahlias, made festive the attractive interior of Mrs. Harlan's home for this gathering, which was naturally informal with no special provision for entertainment as guests found plenty of occupation in renewing old acquaintanceship. Simple refreshments, consistent with war-time regulations, were served late in the afternoon. The guest list included Mesdames Creighton and Christy of Phoenix, Arizona, Mrs. Burberry of Indianola, Iowa, Mrs. Constant of Ruhl, Idaho, Mrs. D. H. Johnson and Miss Bessie Johnson of Monrovia, Mrs. Lowery and Mrs. Devitt of Venice, Mrs. Jane Beatty of Highland Park, Dr. Jessie Russell, Mrs. S. J. Spaulding and Miss Sallie Weir of Glendale.

The German attacks started further east were repulsed by the French.

NEW BRITISH OFFENSIVE

ATTACK THIS MORNING BELOW EPEHY DURING A HEAVY RAIN AND GERMANS GIVE WAY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, Sept. 10.—The British attacked at 5:15 this morning on a 3000 yard front below Epehy during a heavy rain and at one o'clock this afternoon were still pressing on.

Toward St. Quintin the British established outposts within three miles of the city.

In Flanders the British occupied a few minor sectors of the German trenches.

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION

PUBLIC LECTURERS TO EXPLAIN WAR AIMS AND GOVERNMENT PROVISIONS FOR SOLDIERS

That public sentiment both within the army and outside of it may be mobilized and unified, and that a perfectly intelligent understanding of the causes of the war and the aims of the United States government and its allies may be had, schools of instruction for selective service men are to be established by Exemption Boards which will also be open to the public. The underlying purpose is to put the men into camp willingly, loyally, as intelligent, clean, sober soldiers. Chairman Lanterman states that as part of this plan the Board has been instructed at the time of the medical examination to assemble registrants in small groups for personal talks on the work of the Red Cross, Knights of Columbus, Y. M. C. A. and Hebrew Welfare Board, thoroughly explaining to them at the same time the government's provision for allowances and for allotments to soldiers' dependents, and discussing why America entered the war, why it must win the war, and how it will win the war. Concerning local effort along this line, Mr. Lanterman said:

"The Board is promoting the organization of this work along lines which will be most comprehensive and of value to the citizen at large as well as to the soldier in his making. It is expected that these instructive lectures or talks will be very interesting and they will on that account be thrown open to the public. The Board is very much in hopes that when notice of one of these lectures is given, a large attendance will be present of those who expect to go into service as well as those who expect to remain at home.

"The staff has appointed for this and other purposes, eminent men or teachers in the different universities throughout the West who will attend these meetings and give the value of their knowledge to the public in this way.

"The Board is expecting to have its first meeting under this organization about the 20th of this month, but the amount of work to be done by the Board on account of the new registration may delay that date somewhat. The public will be notified from time to time regarding this branch of work."

FITTING FOR PHYSICAL DIRECTOR

Mrs. T. W. Preston of 725 South Adams street reports that her daughter, Miss Jeannette McClennan, who is attending the Chicago School of Physical Education, will resume her school work September 20th. She has been visiting relatives this summer and spent a month in the camp maintained by the school, where the students learn how to conduct such a camp and practice swimming, diving and other sports in the curriculum of a director of physical training which she expects to be when she completes two years of study. She writes that a good many graduates are doing what is called "reconstruction work" in France with soldiers who have been injured. They are known as "Reconstruction Aids" and help the wounded men to get the use of injured members. As war has called a great many male directors of physical training, there is a great demand for teachers in this line. Mrs. Preston expects her daughter to return to Glendale when she completes her course, which is very similar to that given by the famous Sargent School in Cambridge. She is a graduate of the 1917 class of Glendale High and has many friends here.

DEATH OF LOUISE C. SCHEU

The death of Mrs. Louise C. Scheu, wife of Charles H. Scheu, at her home at 309 North Central avenue (Tropico district) Monday night, September 9th, 1918, is a real grief to her neighbors and many friends, for she was a woman of sweet character who was much beloved by all who knew her, and was possessed of unusual mentality. She and Mr. Scheu came to Glendale about thirteen years ago and have ever since resided in the home in which she passed away. With her when she died were her husband and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Buddee Scheu, of Arizona, whose husband has been telegraphed for. The second of her two sons, Carl Scheu, was recently inducted into service at the Balloon School at Arcadia. Services will be held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Little Church of the Flowers in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, in charge of Scovern, Letton & Frey.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair except cloudy or foggy tonight and early in the morning along the coast.

GRADE SCHOOL DATA

SUPERINTENDENT WHITE GIVES INFORMATION ABOUT SCHOOL DISTRICT BOUNDARIES

The Glendale Grammar schools will open on Monday, September 16, 1918. It is very important that every child should enter school on the first day and should thereafter be regular and punctual in his attendance. Any absence may be a serious menace to a child's standing in his classes. Also, since the state and county apportionments of funds are based upon the average daily attendance, absence on the part of the child means a direct financial loss to the district.

School Day

The school day will begin at 9 o'clock and close at 3:15 in all schools except the Intermediate, which will open at 8:45 and close at 3:15.

School Age

The legal age for entering school is six years. However, an allowance of three months is made. This means that in order to enter the first grade a child would have to be six on or before December 16, 1918. No beginners will be admitted after the close of the first month of the term.

Kindergartens

Kindergartens will be opened at the Cerritos avenue, Columbus avenue, Colorado boulevard, Broadway and Pacific avenue schools. Children of kindergarten age residing in the Central avenue district will attend the Columbus avenue school. The law states the kindergarten age to be from four and one-half to six years. This law is interpreted to mean that the child will have to be four and one-half within three months of the opening of school, that is, on or before December 16, 1918. No allowance is made for over age.

GULF STATES REUNION

The annual picnic reunion for the five Gulf States will be held in Sycamore Grove Park, Los Angeles, all day Saturday, September 14th. There will be county headquarters and registers. Basket dinners will be eaten at noon and all must bring dinner, cup and spoon, but hot coffee will be provided. About two o'clock there will be a popular program with songs and addresses. Judge Monta J. Moore will preside and Dr. Ivan Lee Holt of Dallas will be one of the speakers. Sidney K. Johnson will have charge of the music. Old Southern songs, patriotic and national airs will be led by him and he will give a solo. All who have ever lived in Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama or Florida are included in the invitation to come and meet old southern friends again.

TO MESOPOTAMIA

ALTON M. BROOKS WILL BE SENT TO THE ORIENT INSTEAD OF TO ITALY

The following extracts from a letter received by Mrs. A. M. Brooks of Jackson street from her husband, now in New York, will be of interest to his many friends, who will note a change in his plans. Instead of going to Italy, as he had expected to do, he will be sent to the Orient for Y. M. C. A. work in Mesopotamia and other eastern fields where secretaries will be stationed.

"About two weeks ago a call was made for Y. M. C. A. men to go to Mesopotamia. Quite a number volunteered but few were accepted. Had I not been reassigned to Italy, I would have responded then as I felt the great opportunity to visit the Bible lands and help drive the Turk and Mohammedan from the Holy Land. However, I realized it would be an extremely difficult proposition. After thinking about it for some time and talking the matter over with the head of the department, he said he would like to have me sign up if I were willing to go. They gave me a very liberal contract in every way so it will close August 1, 1919. I will perhaps be in India for a while getting ready as Bombay is our headquarters and I will be with the British and Indian troops. One advantage will be that I need no other than the English language.

"Though my passport has not yet arrived, I expect to sail in September. They are going out quite fast now, 313 sailed recently.

"I was at the museum of Natural History the other day. The most interesting things I saw were Peary's sledge with which he reached the North Pole and the Willamette meteorite—one of the largest ever found, weighing 31.000 pounds.

YOU ARE URGED TO BUY LIBERTY BONDS

"Buy until it hurts," "Give until it hurts," are two expressions that are often used, the it referring to the purchase of Liberty Bonds and the other to contributions to the Red Cross or the Y. M. C. A. or kindred work.

Both are fundamentally false in meaning. They should be sent to the scrap heap of rubbish or supplanted by "Buy until it helps" and "Give until it helps."

Do not for one moment vaingloriously think that this means until it helps the country or the Red Cross or the Y. M. C. A. organizations. It means buy or give until it helps YOU and gives YOU a clearer understanding of your responsibility.

"Buy until it helps" you by broadening your vision of the war and the struggle to save civilization.

Buy Liberty Bonds not out of the surplus which you can spare without feeling.

Buy not merely because the purchase of Liberty Bonds is strengthening the nation's power to fight.

But buy because your soul needs the quickening influence of a wider conception of liberty and humanity and civilization. And the more freely you buy the greater will be the ennobling of your own soul. You will be helping yourself, and in that way you will at the same time be helping the nation and civilization.

It is no an act of charity to buy Liberty Bonds. It is merely contributing a moiety out of your ability, great or small as it may be, for the purchase of the engines to stop the conflagration which, having swept over much of the world, is sweeping directly toward your house, and you must save your house by your own work, or else recreantly throw upon your neighbors the responsibility of saving you, while you stand off and shirk your duty.

Buying Liberty Bonds is to save YOUR wife, YOUR mother, YOUR daughter, from the last degredation which women can suffer, as in Belgium and France, and to save your property and your nation from destruction.

It comes as a surprise, very often, to find how far back in the centuries some of the ordinary things of everyday life cast their roots. It may not be generally realized that double-entry bookkeeping, for instance, adopted in most large businesses of the modern world, originated, or if it did not originate, was practiced, among the mercantile communities of Italy in the Fifteenth Century. An early exponent of the method was a Minorite monk named Luca de Burgo, otherwist Pacioli, who wrote and published a treatise on the subject in Venice in the year 1494, three years before Sebastian Cabot landed in America. The system survives as Luca de Burgo established it, with the exception of the few alterations necessitated by four centuries of commercial evolution. Still Mr. Evans or some one else tells strange stories of bookkeeping by double entry in the palace accounts of Knossus, twelve centuries before the Christian era.

Five railroad ticket offices, instead of forty-eight, are to serve the traveling public of Greater New York from and after September 2, making possible a reduction of clerical force from 300 to 210, and a reduction of rental expenses from $389,000 to $100,000. In every other community of the United States similar economies, on a relative scale, are to be made possible by consolidation. Perhaps the most interesting and important phase of the matter appears in the fact that the Railway Administration is entering into leases for ticket offices which run five years, the inference being that, even if the railroads shall be returned to private control after the war, the extravagant method of ticket selling which obtained in the past will not be resumed.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 10—Street and highway construction throughout the country came to a full stop today, except where military necessity is shown. The stopping of highway construction is the result of the order issued recently by Federal Oil Administrator for California D. M. Folsom and by the Federal Highways Council. The order was given in the interest of fuel conservation. Much similar work has been considerably reduced for financial reasons enforced by the capital issues committee of the Federal Reserve Bank, as well as the scarcity of labor and the high cost of materials. The State Power Administration slowed up road work recently by announcing a proposed cut in the production of cement and crushed rock in an effort to conserve hydro-electric power.

SACRAMENTO, Cal., September 10—Experiments in the growing of Egyptian long staple cotton in Natomas lands, 12 miles north of this city, have proved very successful and a large acreage will be put in next season, according to S. W. Hutchinson and E. S. Featherolf, experienced cotton men. Half a bale to the acre is the average production.

The United States Government has positively forbidden the employment of games of chance in the promotion of War Savings Stamp sales. Those persons who have resorted to such a method simply do not understand the situation. War Savings Stamps are not offered with the view of obtaining contributions; they are offered as a very choice investment. Nobody takes a chance in buying them. They are secured by the wealth of the country, and pay a good rate of interest. Incidentally, the United States could not, if it would, profit by a practice which is condemned by its public opinion and its laws.

PREFERRED INDUSTRIES

The War Industries Board, under the direction of Bernard M. Baruch, chairman, working through the Priorities Board, headed by Judge E. B. Parker, is formulating a new list of preferred industries. Although it is not yet in publishable form, it can be stated that the list will be almost twice as long as the one issued last April, which contained about 32 classes.

The amplification has been due to the widely expanded war needs and at the same time to allow for the pressing demands of civilian origin.

The preference list is a key to the relative importance of all of the country's manifold industrial enterprises. The values are established by surveys as to national needs, and, once established, the list is maintained by a system of priority in determining the use of the six basic elements of industry, which are:

1. Material.
2. Facilities.
3. Fuel.
4. Transportation.
5. Labor.
6. Capital.

The Priorities Board has representatives of each of these elements in its membership, except capital, and a working arrangement as to that exists between the War Industries Board and the War Finance Board.

Another point of widest interest lies in the fact that in the preference list is to be found an indication of what constitutes war work. The War Department ruling in "war work or fight" is met by men, otherwise exempted who are engaged in any of the classes of essential industries. The new table may be expected within a week.

SOOTHING THE HEART OF ITALY

"Soothing the Heart of Italy" is the title of a new Red Cross film which will be released shortly. It portrays the now historic expedition of the American Red Cross into Italy. It is the second release made by the Red Cross motion picture bureau and brings actual scenes before the public.

The reel gives a good idea of the wonderful achievements of the American Red Cross in aiding Italy to get back on her feet and to valorously hold the invader at bay.

It shows how Ambassador and Mrs. Page and the United States Consuls early took hold of relief work and how it went forward after the memorable address of Henry P. Davison, Chairman of the War Council of the American Red Cross, in the Coliseum in Rome. Background for the pictures are the classic scenic delights for which Italy is noted, including the King's palace, the gondolas of Venice, the Piazza of San Marco, Bay of Naples, Vesuvius and up to the very pits of the great guns on the Piave.

Any child who is six years old or older on the day the term begins will not be admitted to the kindergarten. Such child may, of course, enter school if the parents so desire. In order that the parent may have a choice between the kindergarten and the school, the child must be between the age of five years and nine months and six years old on the day the term begins.

Parents are advised not to send their children to kindergarten until they are at least four years and nine months old for the following reasons: first, we have a kindergarten course of only one year and if a child finishes that before he has attained the school age he will either have to drop out for a half year or take the same work over again in the kindergarten; second, a child of five will get much more out of the kindergarten work than a child of four and one-half.

Transfers

Children will not be permitted to attend school in a district other than that in which they reside except for good cause. Applications for Special Permits must be made to the Superintendent. Even where such permits are asked for, parents are requested to send their children on the first and second days of the term to the school in whose district they reside. Transfers can be made only after the number enrolled in each grade has been ascertained.

Superintendent's Office Hours

For any further information call up the Superintendent's office between the hours of nine and four except on Saturdays and Sundays. Telephones: Sunset Glendale 593; Home 1363.

AN OLD-FASHIONED SURPRISE PARTY

Mrs. L. A. Parsons, who was for a number of years a loved and respected member of the corps of workers of the Glendale Sanitarium and who has won the affection of all who have been associated with her, has resigned her position and goes to Philadelphia to her son, who is president of the Pennsylvania Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. One evening last week a most delightful old-fashioned surprise party was tendered Mrs. Parsons, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Cummings. As a permanent, loving memorial, a fine Bible was given Mrs. Parsons containing, on the fly-leaves, the signatures of all present.

Mrs. Martha Block arranged a most interesting program of addresses, music, recitations, etc., all of which was profitable as well as attractive in a very high degree. The occasion was one long to be remembered by all who participated.

STUDENT TRAINING CORPS

Berna Martin, one of the graduates of Union High School in the June class, who had expected to attend the State University the coming winter, says he may go to U. S. C. instead. It will depend upon what instructions he receives from Uncle Sam, for he will be a registrant and subject to military orders. Wherever he may be he expects to be enrolled in a military training school and to be subject to call. He will be regarded as belonging to the army, so Berna says, and previous to the calling of his draft number will receive from the government $30 a month and a uniform. After his number is called he will continue at college until the army has real need of him, but in addition to his uniform and soldier pay he will be given his board and lodging during the period of his military training, the same as though he were a soldier in camp.

Not every rug can boast of Persian lineage these war time days, nor even show a New England Mill pedigree. Those fluffy conceits in dainty colors and the old-fashioned braided mats (like Grandmother used to make) which are now conspicuous in Red Cross Shop windows and at bazaars, spring from the lowly rag. From workrooms of dressmakers, milliners, manufacturers, Red Cross chapters, etc., scraps are collected, and homes are picked clean of rags from cellar to garret to feed the looms that turn such salvage into articles of beauty and utility.

DINNER HONORING BROTHER AND SISTER

Miss Catherine Phillips of 710 Harvard (Fifth street) was hostess at a pretty dinner which she gave Sunday in compliment to Captain Eugene Imler and his sister, Margery Imler. The Captain will be graduated from Throop Polytechnic next Sunday and will leave soon after for an eastern army camp. Miss Imler will return to Berkeley next week for the second year of her University course. It was a patriotic dinner and small flags were used for dinner favors. The national colors also featured the floral piece with which the table was centered. Besides the guests of honor, covers were laid for Tom Phillips, brother of the hostess, who is with the Naval Reserve at San Pedro, for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Phillips, and her sister Elizabeth Phillips.

EXTRA ATTRACTIONS AT PALACE GRAND

The Palace Grand Theatre presents some extra attractions this week. Tuesday Tom Mix, in "Ace High," a William Fox film, will be on the screen. It has made quite a hit elsewhere and will probably please equally well in Glendale.

Wednesday another Fox film featuring the movie star and favorite Theda Bara in Cleopatra, the siren of the Nile, will be shown. Theatre patrons will probably remember that this picture ran for eight weeks at the Auditorium in Los Angeles at an admission fee of 50c, 75c and $1. But there will be no increase in Glendale prices.

Thursday the "Unbeliever," produced by the Thomas A. Edison Company, will be given a second showing by request. It was made in co-operation with the U. S. Marine Corps and is a strong appeal to patriotism.

Saturday the dramatization of that widely read western novel, "Riders of the Purple Sage," by Zane Grey, featuring William Farnum, will be on the screen. The play was staged in the Arizona desert and the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, and will be well worth seeing, apart from the interest in the plot.

MONROVIA BANKERS VISIT GLENDALE

Taking advantage of a holiday, Messrs. John M. Bartle and Albert E. Chess, President and Cashier of the First National Bank of Monrovia, visited Glendale Monday. They said some very complimentary things about the city, to which they are not strangers as they are stockholders in the San Fernando Valley Telephone Company and have often been called here on business. When interrogated concerning the flattering reports which have filtered back here regarding the fine record made at training camp by Private Roger Brown, a former resident of Glendale and manager of the Telephone Company, Mr. Bartle, his father-in-law, admitted they were all true though he tried to show a proper modesty. In the first of three examinations which Private Brown has taken to date he was first out of 120, in the second examination he was first out of 320, and in the third was second out of 400 men, being beaten for first place by a man who had been in the army for five years and who was a Harvard College man. At the present time Private Brown is Acting Captain with prospects of being sent to Fortress Monroe in the near future to receive his commission. His friends expect him down for a furlough between the 25th and the 29th of the month.

Gerald Bartle, son of J. H. Bartle, a student at Stanford, who accompanied his father yesterday, expects to go back to the University the 29th of this month and to be there inducted into the Student Army Corps.

So much business has developed at Arcadia since the Balloon School was established and troops now numbering 1700 men were quartered there, that the organization of a local bank became necessary. It has been organized as a branch of the First National of Monrovia. The capital was all subscribed and paid for ten days ago and the opening of the bank merely awaits the authorization of the National Comptroller of Currency, which it is expected will soon be received. Thomas Feron, an experienced banker, will be in charge.

RUSSIAN GENERAL PEDDLES PAPERS

By Joseph Shaplen
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The old general stood proudly erect. He was a figure of war. When you approached at that corner along the Nevsky he would give you a military salute and click his boots in smart fashion. Once, you will be told, he commanded one of the most famous army corps on the Galician front.

Suddenly he lowered his head, as if to hide it. In the distance he spied two noncommissioned officers, fat, sleek, well fed. As they approached closer their elaborately embroidered uniforms cut your eyes. The faces were not Russian. The officers swung their canes brazenly, and a satirical, contemptuous smile played around the corners of their lips. Their epaulets showed they belonged to the 25th Prussian Infantry regiment. As they approached closer to the general they stopped for a moment and threw a dirty rouble note into the arm of a poor, invalid Russian beggar soldier. Then they resumed their goose-step advance. For a moment the pale face of the Russian general became red—with rage or shame, perhaps both. A manifest feeling of relief came upon him as they passed by.

You turned your eyes upon the Prussians and noticed how a number of Russian veterans on crutches, envious of their comrade down the street, ran after them, pleading with outstretched arms.

But the general was gone. As he turned the corner you could hear him crying: "Birgeviya Viedomosti! Extra- Germans advance in the Ukraine!"

The old commander was selling newspapers.

AMERICAN BANK IN CHINA

An important step in the development of American foreign trade has just been taken through arrangements for the establishment of an American bank in China.

A corporation, to be known as the Asia Banking corporation, has been formed under the laws of New York state, with a capital of $2,000,000 and a surplus of one-half million dollars, all of which has been subscribed. Among the stockholders in the new company are the Guarantee Trust company of New York, the Mercantile Bank of the Americas, the Anglo and London, Paris National Bank of San Francisco, the First National Bank of Portland, Oregon, and the National Bank of Commerce of Seattle, Wash. A few other banks interested in foreign trade may be shortly added to this preliminary list.

The company proposes to engage in international and foreign banking in China, in the dependencies and insular possessions of the United States, and, ultimately, in Siberia. Its principal business will be carried on in the Far East. The head office will be in New York City. An agency probably will be established in San Francisco and a central branch in Shanghai, where it is proposed to locate the general manager of the Far Eastern business.

Present plans contemplate the future establishment of other branches in Hankow, Peking, Tientsien, Harbin and Vladivostok. As soon as the Russian situation clears the new bank will be ready to establish itself in Russia and Siberia, or to affiliate itself with old or new Russian banks.

Heretofore English and continental banks principally have financed transactions between this country and the Far East. Those resposible for the organization of the new company declare that the increase in trade between this country and the Far East makes greater banking facilities necessary and justifies the establishment of American banks and investment companies for this purpose.

A Santa Cruz, Cal., reader sends in the following as a verbatim copy of a notice posted in restaurants by the California Food Administration: "It is particularly important to revise the public's definition of a sandwich. Instead of consisting of meat or cheese between two slices of bread, it may quite as appropriately consist of two muffins with meat or cheese on a plate beside them." It apparently follows, then, that pie, instead of consisting of two conventional disc sections with filling between them, may as appropriately consist of two doughnuts with prunes on the side. There is no telling to what this war will lead.

The old joke about the firemen, who did not know one note from another, playing skillfully on the family piano while the flames were dancing around the parlor, has been unconsciously modernized by the statement that Y. M. C. A. workers have hurried into villages recently taken by the allied forces, and rescued from destruction numerous pianos on which the Germans were playing with machine guns.

The Y. M. C. A. has placed orders for 3500 sets of boxing gloves for the use of the American soldiers in France.

Y. M. C. A. workers are establishing dugouts and huts close to the front line trenches for the use of Portuguese troops.

REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

Regulations and instructions to men liable to the draft under the new man-power bill who will be required to register September 12th, have been issued by the Provost Marshal General as follows:

"All male persons who shall have attained their eighteenth birthday and shall not have attained their forty-sixth birthday on or before the day set for registration by the President must register. The only exceptions are:

"(a) Persons, who, prior to the day set for registration by the President, have registered under the terms of the act approved May 18, 1918 (which fixed the original age limits at 21 to 30 inclusive) or under the terms of the public resolution of Congress approved May 20, 1918 (providing for the registration since June 5, 1917, of those reaching the age of 21 years), whether called for public service or not.

"(b) Officers and enlisted men of the Regular Army; officers appointed, and men of the forces drafted under the provisions of the act approved May 18, 1917; officers and enlisted men of the National Guard while in the service of the United States; and the officers of the Officers' Reserve Corps and enlisted men in the Enlisted Reserve Corps while in the service of the United States; and

"(c) Officers and enlisted men of the Navy and Marine Corps and officers and enlisted and enrolled men of the Naval Reserve Force and Marine Corps Reserve while in the service of the United States.

"Persons not subject to registration solely on account of being in the military or naval service of the United States become subject to registration and are required to register immediately upon leaving such military or naval service.

"Citizens of the United States or persons who have declared their intention to become citizens of the United States who do not register on account of absence from the territorial limits of the United States are required to register within five days after their return to the United States."

The regulations then warn registrants and all other persons charged with a knowledge of the regulations that ignorance of the provisions will not excuse them.

"These regulations," it is set forth, "have the force and effect of law, and all persons required by these regulations to be registered, and all persons who may claim any right or privilge in respect of any registrant, are charged with knowledge of the provisions hereof. Failure by any person required to be registered to perform any duty prescribed by these regulations is a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment for one year, and may result in the loss of valuable rights and privileges and an immediate induction into the military service.

The regulations provide for the registration machinery, under the supervision in each State of the governor and adjutant general, and prescribe the functions of the local draft boards and central registration committee, the places of registration, the duties of the registrars, of the mayors, county and township clerks, of the county and city attorneys, of the agents of publicity, of the Post Office Department and postmasters, and of the Federal, State and municipal police officials.

GOVERNMENT TO MAKE CARBOCOAL

The Fuel Administration issues the following:

Following tests made of "Carbocoal" by the United States Navy and two railroads, the United States Government has become interested in the establishment of a plant for the manufacture of the product, at Clinchfield, Va. The plant, which is now in the preliminary stages of construction, will have a capacity of treating several hundred thousand tons of bituminous coal annually. The plans for the plant and grounds allow for an eventual capacity of 1,500,000 tons per year.

By a new process of low temperature distillation, bituminous coal is treated in such a manner as to recover greater quantities of the valuable by-products, such as toluol, sulphate of ammonia, and valuable oils. From the residue is made a valuable smokeless fuel, in the form of briquettes. Tests of "Carbocoal" by the Navy disclose that it contains less than 4 per cent volatile matter, rendering it practically smokeless. Moreover, it is found to work satisfactorily where there is limited grate area and restricted boiler capacity.

ENLARGEMENT FOR ARTILLERY TRAINING

In order that the work of training men for heavy artillery may be developed as rapidly as possible and under the most favorable conditions, it has been decided to increase the size of Camp Abraham Eustis, at Lee Hall, Va., at once. Orders have been issued to the Construction Division to proceed with the work. It is estimated that the additions will cost $1,940,800.

The enlargement calls for motor transportation schools for 500 students, garages, repair shops, a short railroad, concrete roads, new ranges, and barracks and quarters for one trench motor battalion and one anti-aircraft battalion.

COMPLAINTS AND SUGGESTIONS

The organization of a "Bureau of Complaints and Suggestions" has just been established by the U. S. Railroad Administration which will be under Theodore H. Price, actuary of the Railroad Administration. In his announcement of the creation of this Bureau, Director General W. G. McAdoo appeals to the public to coaperate with him. War needs will come first, he declares. The next concern will be the public convenience. On this point he says:

"The next purpose is to serve the public convenience, comfort and necessity to the fullest extent not incompatible with the paramount demands of the war.

In order to accomplish this, criticisms and suggestions from the public will be extremely helpful, whether they relate to the service rendered by employees and officials or impersonal details that may convenience or inconvenience patrons of the railroads. It is impossible for even the most vigilant management to keep constantly in touch with local conditions and correct them when they are not as they should be, unless the public will co-operate in pointing out deficiencies and disservice when they exist, so that the proper remedies may be applied.

I have, therefore, established a Bureau for Suggestions and Complaints in the Director General's office at Washington, to which the public is invited to resort.

Aside from letters of complaint and suggestion, the public can render a genuine service by sending letters of commendation of employees who are conspicuously courteous and efficient in the performance of their duties. Nothing promotes the esprit of a great organization more than recognition from time to time of those employees who perform their duties faithfully and commendably.

It is requested that all communications be brief and explicit and that the name and address of the writer be distinctly written.

Also give the time of day or night, the number of the train, the name of the railroad, and, if possible, the name of the employee whose conduct is complained of or whose services are commended, together with such other information as will enable me to take appropriate action.

OLD TIME SOLDIER DIES AS HE WISHED

By Webb Miller
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, August 19.—(By Mail.)—There'll be many moist eyes among the "Old Army" men who are now wearing gold and silver leaves and silver stars on their shoulders when they hear that "Ol" Sergt. Jim Payne of the —th Infantry fell, riddled by machine bullets, on the first day of the Soissons fighting.

Sergt. Payne was one of the oldest and most experienced of the old-time non-coms, and had seen service in every land where American soldiers set foot for the past twenty years. He "soldiered" and fought Moros in the wilds of Mindanao under Capt. J. J. Pershing, and helped Pershing chase the Villistas into the interior of Mexico.

In many a headquarters, dugout and mess shack they will say "Poor ol' Jim, God bless him," when they hear that Payne is gone. Probably no other man in the army had as many close friends among the officers. For the last twenty years Payne has been training second lieutenants and seeing them gain their first lieutenancy, then captains' bars, majors' gold leaves and so on toward the major generals' double stars.

A good many of the youths that Payne "mothered" are now generals in the new army. But no matter how high they went in rank, they always retained their love for the leathery-faced, grizzled old sergeant. Year after year Sergt. Jim has been taking "shave-tails" fresh from West Point, and nervous as cats about their first commands, under his arm and teaching them the fine points of handling men, as only an old first sergeant can do.

But Payne remained always a first sergeant. In the old days there wasn't much chance for a man to rise out of the ranks to a commission—especially if he "hadn't had much schoolin'," as Payne would tell his friends who urged him to try for a commission.

At the outbreak of war Payne was offered a captaincy, but refused it.

"I want to win my shoulder bars on the field with my boys," he told them. Last winter he served as first sergeant, but this spring asked to be reduced to a sergeant, so he could go out and lead a platoon . Only a few weeks before he was killed the recommendation went through for his promotion to a lieutenancy. Within a few days Sergt. Jim would have been wearing the coveted silver bar, won as he wanted to win it.

But he died as he wanted to die—"with the boys."

And there will be many misty eyes along the lines when they hear about "Ol' Jim."

NEW WHEAT RULES FOR HOUSEHOLDS

Full details of the new wheat-saving program for the housewives of the state are announced by Acting Federal Food Commissioner Preston McKinney, following further advices from Washington.

The essential changes from the former program are:

1—Breads for each day and each meal henceforth to be partly wheatless, with the elimination of the two former wheatless days and the wheatless evening meals.

2—Curtailment of the list of wheat substitutes. Rice and breakfast foods are no longer substitutes.

3—Abolishment of the rule which restricted flour purchases in towns and cities to one-eighth of a barrel at each purchase and in rural districts to one-quarter of a barrel.

4—Abolishment of the 50-50 rule, which provides for the purchase of an equal quantity of substitute flours with wheat flours.

The new program calls for the use of Victory Mixed Flour which will contain the 20 per cent substitutes, and which will be put out by the mills. This flour will shortly be on the market.

In lieu of using this flour, the housewife may purchase wheat flour at the ratio of four pounds to one pound of substitutes, which includes barley, corn, oat, potato, rice and other cereal flours. Where rye flour is used as a substitute, two pounds must be purchased with each three pounds of the wheat product.

In brief, the nation is asked to use bread, rolls and other breadstuffs which shall contain at least twenty per cent of substitutes in accordance with the bread which the Allied nations will use.

The Food Administration made it clear that there should be no let-up in saving under the new wheat program, but that the restrictions have been modified in a measure commensurate with the improved conditions abroad.

No one is asked to continue on a strictly wheatless diet, but those who do so will be contributing that much toward winning the war, McKinney said.

There have been hints of possible restrictions on the use of pleasure motoring for some time, but, nevertheless, the request that owners of such vehicles, in certain parts of the United States, let them rest on Sundays came in the nature of a surprise. It may possibly avert a more sweeping curtailment if the request shall be generally complied with. As a matter of policy, if not because of a higher motive, the extravagant user of gasoline, who has an automobile to shed, should prepare to shed it on Saturdays, before midnight.

There is a Red Triangle hut in Holland which the soldiers call "'alf-way hut to heaven." It is for interned men.

SOLDIERS GET SOLUBLE COFFEE

The entire output of all factories in the United States making soluble coffee is now being purachased by the Quartermaster Corps for the use of the Army. The quantity at present being manufactured, however, is not sufficient to meet the great demand, and as a result new companies are being organized and large capital is being expended to insure a largely increased output of the soluble coffee for the near future.

Think what the spectacle of cheerful giving means to the enemy.
